

Republican Victory Is Assured by the Heavy Registration in County

GREAT MAJORITY WILL VOTE REPUBLICAN TICKET

EVERY county election in recent years in Salt Lake county has been practically won on the last day of registration. This campaign is no exception to the rule, and the Republican party won the election yesterday through a total registration of 8,738.

Approximately 6,000 are Republican votes. Of the registration of 8,738 for Salt Lake county yesterday, the Americans claim only 3,000, while the Democrats who had no information regarding the registration excepting that obtained through their alliance with the American party, said the total registration for Salt Lake county might have been 5,700.

The American-Democratic combination worked perfectly so far as its organization would permit. American party carriages and automobiles were placed at the disposal of the Democrats in many districts and the Democrats had only five automobiles of their own. It is estimated that one-fourth of the voters carried to register in American party vehicles were for the Democrats.

There was no disorder at any of the registration offices yesterday and although the American party had a dozen or more workers in the Fifty-fourth district, the police force was not used to the extent that it was in the district one year ago.

Eldredge Prediction Good.

County Chairman J. U. Eldredge Jr., who on Monday estimated the total registration at between 6,000 and 8,000, said at 9:15 last night that the registration would prove to be close to 8,000. In less than 30 minutes afterwards, returns from all, excepting three city districts, had been received at his headquarters and 20 minutes later the list was complete, with all excepting seven districts in the county. In about another hour the registration returns had been received from the last county district and the county chairman announced the total registration for Salt Lake county at 8,738.

Of this, 6,475 were registered in the city districts and 2,262 were registered in the county outside Salt Lake. Up at Democratic headquarters the county and state chairmen and a few workers were waiting until they received word from American headquarters. Joseph Young, county chairman, and Mahon Spencer, county secretary, were both sure that 90 per cent of the day's registration would vote the Democratic ticket. As to how many votes this 90 per cent meant there was a difference of opinion. Mr. Spencer's first estimate was that the total registration would be 2,500, while Mr. Young followed the American party county chairman's estimate at 3,700 to 4,000.

It is the same old story of organization against no effort, said Chairman Eldredge after the registration returns were in. "Every Republican victory in Salt Lake county has been won on registration day. The Republican organization throughout the 100 districts of the county was perfect today and this is shown by the results. Credit for the complete registration is due to the earnest and consistent work of the Republican workers in every district and organization. The Republican workers in the county districts outside Salt Lake City is superb. We have the heaviest registration in the rural districts that has been made in years. Of the 6,475 registrations in Salt Lake City, at least 4,500 were Republicans and outside the city about 90 per cent were Republicans."

Had No Organization.
"The Americans and the Democrats had no organized whatever in the county districts of the county. Here are some examples of the work of our men in the county. District 57, shows a registration of 107, shows at least 85 Republicans; district 56, with a total registration of 117, shows at least 90 Republicans; district 51, in Bingham, shows 119 registered and 85 of these are Republicans, while district 99, in Bingham registered a total of 159 and 106 are Republican votes." Forecasts of the registration made Monday at the Republican county chairman were 6,000 to 8,000. The American party chairman estimated that the registration would be about 4,000, while the Democratic chairman made no estimate. At American party headquarters just before the registration offices closed the estimate was raised to "less than 5,000," while at Republican headquarters it was placed at "over 8,000."

At 10:30, after the Republican county chairman had figures from every district in the county, American party headquarters had received reports from 77 of the city districts. These showed a registration 4,005, and the Americans claimed 2,315 of these. At this time Chairman David C. Dunbar said: "The Americans have registered 98 per cent of their vote. We have not received detailed reports from few districts, but the total registration in Salt Lake will not exceed 6,000, and of these we claim that 3,000 or a few over that number are Americans."

The Republican organization had 1,000 workers scattered throughout the districts of the county and 300 carriages and automobiles. The Americans had about 50 conveyances and some of these were at the disposal of the Democrats who had only five automobiles and about as many carriages.

LABORING MEN TO REBUKE SPALDING

Resent His Boast That He Carries Labor Vote in His Vest Pocket.

Labor union men of Salt Lake county are getting in line with preparations to jump on one J. N. Spalding on election day in a manner that will convince that self-appointed "deliverer" of the labor vote that his claims of ability to deliver their votes are groundless. Tired of the boasts of Spalding and his little coterie that they "carry the labor vote in their vest pockets," this rebuke will also cut Spalding off the American party payroll and spoil his future chances for dipping into the slush fund of the Tribune to the extent of $500 or so at every campaign.

Representing that he can deliver the labor vote anywhere he desires, Spalding arranged for a "contribution" of $500 "for the good of the cause," and named a slate of labor union men who were to be placed on the American party ticket for this campaign. This list was submitted to the manager of the Tribune, and a few changes were made to include Tribune employees, and it received the official sanction of the inner circle. Spalding received his $500, which he cut three ways, and the American county committee was informed just how many labor men's franchises had been "bought" through Spalding.

Prominent members of the labor unions were ordered to take their directions from Spalding and, disliking the methods of the self-appointed political walking delegate, they started a movement that will end in an effective refutation of the assertion that Spalding and his little crowd can buy and sell their votes at will.

"We labor men are not strong for any political party, but we have sense enough to get in and work for the party which we believe can do us the most good," said a prominent union man yesterday. "This is the principal reason why most of us will vote the Republican ticket. We believe it is better to have one or two men on the winning ticket than to have a dozen losers, and, moreover, we don't like the style of any man who asserts that he carries our votes around in his vest pocket. I am informed that a committee of labor men was appointed to confer with the Republican organization regarding the support for at least three representative labor men on the Republican legislative ticket. This committee, influenced by Spalding, failed to carry out its instructions and 'threw down' the labor interests of Salt Lake. The Republican party is the party which has done most for the laboring classes, and I believe that 75 per cent of the labor vote of Salt Lake will be for the Republicans."

TO SPEAK AT MANTI

Senator Smoot Chose Saunpete Date Instead of Engagement at Salt Lake Theatre Friday.

Senator Reed Smoot will be the principal speaker at a rally to be held at Manti Friday evening. This rally was arranged for Sunday and it was discovered yesterday that Senator Smoot was expected to be in two places on the same evening, inasmuch as he was billed for a speech at the Salt Lake theatre rally on that evening. When this was explained to the senator he insisted on filling the Manti date. Senator George Sutherland, Governor William Spry and Congressman Joseph Howell will speak at the Salt Lake rally on that night. Benjamin L. Rich will accompany Fred A. Maynard to Ogden to speak at the Republican rally there next Saturday evening. Arrangements were also completed yesterday whereby Heber C. Iverson will speak at Logan Saturday evening and H. S. Joseph and O. W. Carlson will be the principal speakers at a rally to be held at Riverston Saturday evening. Fred A. Maynard will speak at Panguitch next Monday evening and the Salt Lake troubadours will furnish music for this rally.

SCANDINAVIANS HOLD MEETING AT MURRAY

Scandinavians of Murray were given opportunity last evening of listening to F. S. Fernstrom for a good part of an hour while that individual discussed the various phases of the Democratic party. Mr. Fernstrom emphatically declared that there would be several startling things occur sometime the coming week, and that when the final tally was taken that the showing would be largely in favor of the Democrats.

Oscar Peterson, a "staunch supporter" down at the smelter city, also delivered the occasion with a few brief remarks about what he thought of the Democrats. Peterson, like his predecessor, thought the Democratic party was in a little world of its own, and that it was fostering the most whole-some ideas of any of the parties now in the running.

BIG RALLIES FOR THE FINAL WEEK

Salt Lake Theatre Meeting Friday Night Is to Be Greatest of Campaign.

Two big Republican rallies are scheduled for Salt Lake this week. One of these is the rally at the Salt Lake theatre Friday evening, which will be the biggest political event of the campaign. At this rally Senator George Sutherland, Governor William Spry and Congressman Joseph Howell will speak.

Special music will be provided for this rally, including the Graham quartet. The theatre will be profusely decorated for the occasion, and the direction of Carl Reynolds, Republican chairman for the Fifty-fourth district.

Another big rally in the city will be held tonight in the Sixteenth ward amusement hall in the Third precinct. Senator Reed Smoot and Heber C. Iverson will be the principal speakers at this rally, and Professor Charles Kent will sing.

Senator George Sutherland and Governor Spry will speak at Provo tonight. The Governor completes a trip through Carbon and Emery counties this morning, and will return to Salt Lake a few hours later for the direction of Carl Reynolds, Republican chairman for the Fifty-fourth district.

Other state rallies scheduled for this evening are at American Fork, where Dr. George H. Brimhall will speak, and at South Ogden, where Carl A. Badger speaks in Weber county.

Another big rally for Thursday evening will be held at the Forest Date amusement hall, at which Governor Spry, Fred Maynard will be the principal speakers.

URGES REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO ACTION

Mrs. George Sutherland Is the Speaker at Daily Matinee at Headquarters.

Mrs. George Sutherland, who spoke at the reception at Republican women's headquarters for Sunday last, yesterday afternoon, urged the women voters of the state to take a deeper interest in social and ethical problems which are to be settled through legislation.

Mrs. Sutherland called attention to the articles which have appeared in recent issues of magazines which have asserted that in the states in which women vote there has been little legislation along the lines of juvenile control work and child labor. She urged the women to take more interest in these problems, and asserted that the statement that Utah was lax on its provisions for juvenile delinquents was false, supporting this statement with a review of the provisions for juvenile control work that have been passed by the last two sessions of the legislature. Hostesses for today's reception will be Mrs. M. Levy, Mrs. D. Salmanson and Mrs. Dr. Hevig.

JOE SHARP'S OPPONENT WOULD VOTE FOR HIM

Michael Mauss, who holds the dual distinction of being the father of triplets and of being city marshal of Murray, stands ready and willing to vote for Joseph C. Sharp for sheriff, though he himself is running for this office on the Democratic ticket. At the Republican rally in Murray Monday night, Mauss met Sheriff Sharp, who was smiling and an outstretched hand. "If you need my vote, Joe, just let me know and you will need it," said Mauss, with a hearty handshake. "That's mighty nice of you, Mike," said the sheriff, "and I certainly will need it. But I don't believe I will need it. Anyhow, you have made such a fine record down here at Murray that I believe it would be wrong to move you."

SCANDINAVIAN RALLY TO BE HELD AT SANDY

Scandinavians will hold a big Republican rally at Sandy tonight, with C. M. Nielson and Axel Steele as the principal speakers. Paul Sjelbo, the celebrated Scandinavian baritone singer, will render several selections, and it is likely that local candidates will be included in the list of speakers. Another Scandinavian rally will be held Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Wall in Big Cottonwood. C. M. Nielson and Axel Steele will also address this meeting, and Paul Sjelbo will sing.

WEBER FALSIFIED SENATE RECORD

Senator Sutherland Disproves Charge That He Was Against Labor Interests.

CLEARED OF THE ATTACK

Great Republican Rally at Midvale Brings Out Representative Crowds; O. W. Carlson Speaks.

Vigorous denial of misrepresentations of A. J. Weber that he had voted contrary to the interests of organized labor in the Senate was made by Senator George Sutherland at Midvale last night in the course of a strong address, in which he plainly outlined his stand on labor questions and many other national issues.

That Weber had quoted the Senate records when he read what pretended to show the vote of the Utah delegation as against the employers' liability law, the sixteen-hour law, the child labor law and the anti-injunction bill, was the charge of the junior senator.

Declaring himself to be much in favor of the measures he had been accused of opposing, and pointing out the manner in which he had attempted to safeguard them from injurious amendment, the speaker completely cleared himself from Weber's attack.

Preceding the defense of his record in the Senate, Senator Sutherland outlined in masterly manner the long record of achievement of the Republican party in national affairs. From the organization of the Republican party in 1856 it has an almost unbroken record of being in the right as against the blundering catastrophes of Democracy, he declared.

Constructive Legislation.

"There is not one act of worthy, constructive legislation on the federal statute books, placed there during the past fifty years, that has not been the creation of the Republican party," he said, "while an exactly opposite record confronts us in the history of Democratic control during the same period."

The speaker then proceeded to trace the paramount issues of the last fifty years, showing the stand taken by the two opposing political parties and the manner in which the Republican party had been vindicated by history, not only in its triumphs, but in the disasters that had resulted from the brief periods of control enjoyed by Democracy.

That the cry of Democracy against the tariff bill was but characteristic of that party's discontent in all matters in which they have no hand, and that the high prices said to result from the tariff was the very thing the Democrats feared, would not come about if the gold standard was persisted in for fourteen years ago, was a point emphasized by the speaker.

Arraigns Extravagance.

The local issues of the campaign were handled by Oscar W. Carlson, candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket. His address was a severe arraignment of the American party's extravagance, purposeless waste of the public money in its administration of the city government, and a warning lest the county be laid open to the same loose administration.

"Careless waste of the public tax fund is the most charitable way in which the 'American' party's misadministration can be designated," he declared.

Mr. Carlson proceeded to recount the splendid achievements of the Republican county administration during the last two years, with no increase of the general tax, with the single exception of a one-mill levy for the replenishing of the poor fund. He contrasted this with the record of the "American" party in the city, with its great increase, its increased bonded indebtedness and its failure to make corresponding improvements.

All Midvale turned out for the rally, packing the opera house to overflowing. Enthusiasm was rampant, every reference to the Republican national and local administrations bringing applause.

The Graham quartet entertained between speeches and the Republican drum corps paraded the streets of the little city.
